

Breast Cancer Prevention Community Education Forum for Younger Women

Saturday, February 7, 2009
9:00 am – 2:00 pm Program

(Registration from 8:00-9:00am)
Carr Auditorium at San Francisco General Hospital
1001 Potrero Avenue, San Francisco, California

Sponsored by Zero Breast Cancer and the UCSF/SFGH AVON Comprehensive Breast Care Program with funding from the Avon Foundation and the Marin County Board of Supervisors

TOPICS:

- Important facts about breast cancer risk and prevention in younger women
- Medical approaches to reduce breast cancer incidence in women under age 40
- Understanding genetic assessment and testing (individual and family)
- Practical tips from the research – environmental factors and healthy living
- Diagnostic Imaging in younger women
- Breast exams in younger women – what to expect from your healthcare provider
- Bay Area programs, health insurance issues, and resources for younger women

Registration ($10) includes Continental Breakfast, Lunch and Materials.
CEU's available for nurses and health educators. Registration fee waivers are available.

Community Partners include:

Women's Cancer Resource Center, Charlotte Maxwell Complementary Clinic and Cancer Resource Centers of Mendocino County

For more info and to register, please visit www.zerobreastcancer.org/2009Forum, or contact Susan Schwartz at Zero Breast Cancer:
(415) 507-1949 x104

For info on the UCSF/SFGH Avon Comprehensive Breast Care Program, contact Shermineh Jafarieh: (415) 476-4082 x416

San Francisco General Hospital and Trauma Center

